C. OF C. DIRECTORS AND CITY COUNCIL ACT TOGETHER

Two Organizations Plan to Work in Harmony in Helping Glendale

Members of the City Council and the directors of the Chamber of Commerce met at luncheon in the assembly room of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday and formulated plans for welding the two organizations into a unit body that will function for the best interests of Glendale.

At the conclusion of the meeting, it was the opinion among those present that the session was one of the most enthusiastic gatherings ever held by the civic leaders of this city.

The members of the City Council who participated were Mayor Spencer Robinson, City Manager W. H. Reeves and Councilmen Sam A. Davis, Dwight W. Stephenson and C. E. Kimlin. The entire directorate of the Chamber of Commerce was present.

Sympathetic Lines

In his introductory address Mr. Smith told the members of the City Council that the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce felt that Glendale could best develop this ensuing year if the civic organizations at its head functioned along sympathetic lines. "And for that reason," he said, "we, as an organization, are thankful for your presence.

"We want to solicit the support of the City Council in all our problems that are for the betterment of Glendale, and likewise we want to feel at liberty to cooperate with the City Council in its civic duties."

"Let's cut out individuality by working as a unit organization in the development of all civic questions, problems and projects that are of interest to the welfare of

SCOUTS PREPARE FOR XMAS HIKE

Journey to 'Old Baldy' Will Be Taken by Number Of Glendale Lads

The big Christmas Snow Hike to "Old Baldy" planned for December 26, 27 and 28 has brought out a regular avalanche of Scouts to the district office to make reservations for the trip. Although the announcement was only in The Glendale Evening News last Friday nearly all of the fifty places have been reserved and with the keen interest that has already been shown Executive Benner believes that these few that are left will be gobbled up like hot cakes before the end of the week.

A special rate of $3.25 was made to the Scouts which includes meals, lodging and transportation for the three-day trip. Scouts warned to take plenty of extra clothing with them and to make sure their shoes are in good condition. A big bus has been chartered to take the Scouts to the Toll House from which they will hike to Camp Baldy. The bus will leave the Pacific Electric station at 8 o'clock, sharp, on Tuesday morning.

SURE OF SUCCESS FOR CITY'S TREE

Community Celebration to Be Great Glendale Event Says Harry Girard

The Community Christmas tree program is going to be one of the biggest things ever staged in Glendale, according to Harry Girard of 230 South Louise street, who has charge of the men's chorus.

"This is going to be put over so easily," he remarked, "that people haven't any conception of it. I know that, if it is a nice quiet night, we will have 15,000 people there and probably will have to repeat it every night during the week between Christmas and New Year's."

The second and final rehearsal of the chorus will be held just before its appearance Christmas night.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

WARSAW, Dec. 20.—Stanislav Wojeiechowicki today was elected president of Poland to succeed President Narutowicz, who was assassinated last Saturday.

Glendale Business Interests Recognize The Evening News Is 100 Per Cent Loyal And City's Only Real Daily Newspaper

Realizing that upon The Evening News rests the pleasant duty of furnishing to Glendale its only real daily newspaper—a paper that is all for Glendale institutions and Glendale merchants—a paper whose business-getting power is not offset by a Los Angeles paper circulating with it—the management of The Evening News offers its advertisers the largest bona fide circulation list of subscribers of any newspaper circulating in Glendale.

The management also takes pleasure in announcing that in the past four months The Evening News has carried twenty-seven per cent more of paid advertising than the Los Angeles Express insert.

For this act of good judgment on the part of the merchants in so liberally patronizing The Evening News, an institution that is 100 per cent loyal to Glendale business concerns, this newspaper expresses its thanks.

BUSINESS CLUB'S PARTY IS ENJOYED

Members Appear as Happy Children at Gathering Held Last Night

An informal Christmas party was enjoyed last night by more than thirty members of the Professional and Business Women's club at their clubhouse on South Maryland avenue.

"Bill" Brown, all dressed up in knickers, ruff neck sweater and cap, who boisterously greeted the guests at the door and welcomed them with a merry laugh was none other than Dr. Laura Brown, club president. Other members donned juvenile attire for the party and brought Christmas gifts tied up in holiday paper and gay with ribbons.

Each guest brought two gifts, one for the clubhouse pantry and another to send to sick kiddies for Christmas. The club gifts were arranged on a long table and included everything from a bag of potatoes to a glass of jelly.

The feature of the club table was the money offering which amounted to over $15.

Gifts for the kiddies were placed around the Christmas tree on the piano.

During the evening "Bill" Rhodes and Mrs. A. McCoy entertained with readings and members of the club took part in games and singing Christmas carols.

Final decision of where the children's presents will go was not made but they will doubtless be divided between the Monte Vista home for under-nourished children and the Orthopedic Hospital in Los Angeles.

FAVORS BUS LINE TO LOS ANGELES

West Glendale Association Backs Project; Annexation Is Not Discussed

Action favoring the proposed bus line between Glendale and Los Angeles was taken last night at the meeting of the West Glendale Improvement association at the Columbus Avenue school.

A committee was appointed from the club membership to attend the city council meetings to keep in touch with any further action with regard to the bus line. The committee includes O. M. Newby, Rudolph Streit, V. C. Anderson and A. R. Goodale.

Mr. Anderson presided over the meeting, during which a constitution and by-laws was adopted and the discussion of the bus line engaged in.

The subject of annexation was not taken up, the association urging its members to attend the annexation meeting at the Glendale Union high school Thursday night. At the next meeting of the association the annexation problem will be discussed pro and con and action taken with regard to it.

Uncle John Says--

I see the buildin' in Glendale this year will run up to considerable over six million dollars. This pleases me and Mary, for we like to see Glendale forge ahead. We worked hard in our time and we put all our money into Glendale property and we ain't sorry to see it increase in value. We ain't averse to takin' it a little easy now and sort of enjoyin' life here in this sunny clime.

BIBLE AND DANCE UNDER DISCUSSION

Executive Committee for Federated Brotherhood Holds Meeting

The executive committee of the Federated Brotherhood met last night at the First Methodist church and discussed plans for promoting their work during the coming year.

A plan to have the study of the Bible under a non-sectarian method taught in connection with the Glendale school system was indorsed.

It was suggested that this might be accomplished by making the subject an elective and allowing the students to attend classes to be held away from the high school premises.

George U. Moyse, principal of the Glendale Union High school, was present and spoke upon the subject of high school dances and the study of the Bible. He emphasized a statement that it would be better to have pupils attend properly chaperoned dances in Glendale rather than go to Los Angeles or unchaperoned road houses and cabarets.

Mrs. Mabel L. Tight of 612 East Broadway, chairman of the hotel committee, stated that she had nothing definite to report.

C. W. Ingledue of 632 East Broadway, president of the organization, announced that the next meeting would be held in the Broadway Inn at noon, Tuesday, January 2, 1923.

Among those present yesterday were the following: Dr. G. I. Royce, Frank Fox, R. M. Brown, Herman Nelson, Dr. Lolita Flewelling, C. C. Coghlan, Dr. R. W. Sherred, Mrs. Mary J. Brewer, H. L. Glendale Community Players in Program

"Society Notes," a one-act playlet, by Duffy West, was given last night by a group of Glendale community players at the home of the director, Mrs. Nanno Woods, at 122 West Milford street. More than forty members and friends of the players' organization were present.

Those taking part in the playlet were Miss Dorothy Morton as the ingenue; Mrs. L. Bradley as the matronly, society climber; L. Bradley as the unsuitable lover; Dr. J. Tuneson as the lover, Miss Dorothy Patterson as the gushing society reporter, and Hubert Woods as the rheumatic father. The cast was directed by Bernard Tweedale and the lighting effects arranged by Hubert Woods.

After the play Mr. Tweedale gave a sketch of how different persons recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade" (Tennyson); Mrs. Eileen Whelon sang "At Dawning" (Cadman); Nathan Dial gave a vocal number, and Mrs. Woods read two original poems, "When You Get Home Tonight" and "Smile When Your Husband Comes In."

Washington Losing Third of Apple Crop

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 20.—One-third of the apple crop of the state of Washington is going to ruin because of lack of transportation facilities and exorbitant freight rates, John Quincy Adams, president of the Washington state farmers' union, declared today.

Adams estimated the monetary loss to Washington growers at $1,500,000 out of a total crop valuation of $6,000,000.

"One-third of the apple crop in Washington is going to ruin through sheer inability to move or to handle in the face of the high freight rates," Adams said. "But lack of transportation is the greatest cause of this huge loss.

"Apples are being left on trees or dumped in the rivers or are frozen while in flimsy warehouses waiting cars which never come.

"Farmers throughout the apple districts are using private cellars and all available storage space to hold the apples and prevent their freezing until cars arrive.

"The Columbia river between Orondo and Wenatchee is red with apples which have been dumped. True, many of them were wormy, but at least some would have been marketable if they had been sorted.

"However, with railroad rates as high as they are, and no cars available, growers are shipping only what fancy apples they can. The net prices obtained do not justify growers in handling C grade apples and even some fancy apples."

Kansas City Seeks Mint Bandit Gang

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 20.—Federal agents, private detectives and Kansas City, Kan., police, armed with riot guns, are guarding every road entering Kansas City today on the lookout for the bandit band which robbed the Denver mint of $200,000 Monday and killed one of the guards.

This action followed reports from the sheriff at Topeka, Kan., that two automobiles loaded with men had passed through Topeka at a high rate of speed, headed toward Kansas City.

City to Get Report On Sewage Disposal

MAIDS AND YOUNG MATRONS SECTION STAGES PARTY

Mrs. Claude Putnam Home Is Scene of Unusual Holiday Gathering

Kate Douglas Wiggins' pathetically happy sketch from her delightful Christmas story, "The Birds' Christmas Carol" of the Ruggleses, being washed and dressed up from the family wardrobe and trained in proper etiquette for their attendance at the Christmas party at the big home of Carol Bird, the little invalid, was the fitting entertainment presented yesterday afternoon at the Christmas party of the Maids' and Young Matrons' section of the Tuesday Afternoon club with Mrs. Claude G. Putnam at 424 North Glendale avenue.

It was a "kid" party and all of Mrs. Putnam's guests arrived in juvenile attire for the 1 o'clock luncheon served in the Aztec room of the Putnam home.

Holiday Luncheon

The luncheon was a buffet affair, attractive holiday luncheon boxes being served each guest from a table bearing a snow-covered Christmas tree lighted with Christmas candles.

After the luncheon the roll was called and the members responded with Christmas poems, songs and quotations and as a reward Santa Claus soon appeared and presented each with a gift.

For the "Birds' Christmas Carol" a group of the members were chosen and they were cleverly costumed to represent members of the Ruggles family. There were "Ma" Ruggles and her whole brood and the scene in their little home was most convincingly and entertainingly presented.

Those taking part in the sketch were Mesdames G. R. Postle, J. A. Belyea, S. E. Ross, W. F. MacPherson, C. C. Carroll, Mae Rosenberg, D. H. Scott, John Cole, E. L. Osborn and Miss F. R. Scott.

The company received by Mrs. Putnam included Mesdames Waldo Richardson, E. D. Sutton, D. H. Scott, S. E. Ross, F. J. Rogers, Mae Rosenberg, G. R. Postle, J. A. Belyea, E. D. Black, C. C. Carroll, H. D. Charlton, John Cole, A. M. Draper, J. P. Hardill, W. F. MacPherson, C. H. Meadows, E. L. Osborn and Miss F. R. Scott.

LAUSANNE, Dec. 20.—Lord Curzon announced this afternoon that the Near East conference will continue, the Turks having adopted a conciliatory attitude towards the allied plan for settlement of the straits question. Earlier in the day it had been reported that the Turks would not yield to the allies and that the conference was liable to break up. Ismet Pasha today announced that the American colleges and institutions in Smyrna will be permitted to re-open under the Angora regime.

OPPOSE TRANSFER OF U. S. SHIPPING BUSINESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Transfer of the government's billion gold shipping business to the department of commerce with elimination of the United States shipping board and its auxiliary organizations was opposed today by Senator King, Democrat, Utah, in a bill introduced in the senate. Adoption of the plan would make Secretary of Commerce Hoover the director general of ships, a post similar to the director general of railroads during the war, and would give him complete control of the government's shipping.

MISS MATHILDE M'CORMICK IS NOW IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Miss Mathilde McCormick, daughter of Harold F. McCormick, is "somewhere in England," where her friends claim they do not know. In fact, they claim to have no knowledge of her being in England. The young heiress, who is engaged to marry Max Oser, the former Swiss riding master, arrived in London last night with a girl friend. "I'm sorry I have nothing to say and cannot discuss my plans," she told International News. With the aid of the porter, Miss McCormick did considerable dodging through the crowd at the station, raced to a taxicab and escaped through a traffic jam.

BANDITS PLANNED TO GET FULLY $500,000 IS CLAIM

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Two big robberies by which they expected to get fully $500,000 were planned by the Jenks Harris alleged bandit gang, arrested for the robbery of the Fillmore state bank at Piru, deputy sheriffs disclosed today. The gang planned to rob United States navy payroll messengers at San Pedro today and to hold up the Standard Oil payroll messengers at El Segundo, the deputies said, and then flee to Mexico. Efforts to link the gang with a score of hold-ups during the past year, including two other bank "jobs," and with the sensational escape of Clara Phillips from the county jail were being made by deputy sheriffs today.

MINE GUARD SHOWS RELIC OF HERRIN MASSACRE

MARION, Ill., Dec. 20.—Horror was piled upon horror before the jury today in the trial of the five men indicted for the murder of Howard Hoffman during the Herrin mine riot of June 22. It culminated when Patrick O'Rourke, a mine guard, the man who came back from the gates of death, left bound to five other victims near the Herrin cemetery, removed his collar and tie, unbuttoned his shirt and bared his neck, showing the livid scars of a knife wound. Slowly he walked from juror to juror and solemnly they looked at the great jagged mark left by the knife that slashed him as he lay with seven bullets in his body on the cemetery road. O'Rourke described the maimed condition in which he was left by the seven bullet wounds, operations he has yet to endure to regain full use of his limbs and his jaw. Twice he was shot in escaping from the barbed wire fence fusillade in the power house woods, once in the head and once in the body. Shot in the ankle at the first volley at the cemetery, he said he fell, dragging the others down with him. He was shot five times there, in the arm, the shomach and the chin. He could identify none of his assailants. His hair was matted with blood over his eyes by the time he reached the cemetery. He is near-sighted and his glasses had been torn away, he said.

WILL H. HAYS REINSTATES 'FATTY' ARBUCKLE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Will H. Hays, head of the motion picture industry, has given Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, fat man of the movies, his chance to come back before the American public. After the first of the year will come his new opportunity. Hays, before leaving for the east today, made public his Christmas present to the rotund comedian. Arbuckle was barred from the screen about a year ago following the three trials through which he was finally acquitted of charges of having been responsible for the death of Virginia Rappe, a film actress, who died following a party in Arbuckle's room at a San Francisco hotel. Arbuckle was not, in the strict sense of the word "reinstated." His pictures, made prior to the ban, will not be released, at this time, anyhow, according to Hays' ruling. Hays' action was taken when, after inquiry, he was convinced Arbuckle had been living a prosaic life since the San Francisco tragedy. Hays' statement reads: "Every man, in the right way, and at the proper time, is entitled to his chance to make good. It is apparent that Roscoe Arbuckle's conduct since his trouble merits that chance. So far as I am concerned, there will be no objection now that he should not have his opportunity to work in his profession. In our efforts to develop a complete cooperation and confidence within the industry, I hope we can start the new year with no yesterdays. 'Live and let live' is not enough; we must try to live and help live." Arbuckle will resume work for Joseph Schenck, to whom he was formerly under contract. Arbuckle, enthused over what a day or two ago seemed to him a hopeless future, when seen at the Schenck studio, said: "I want to say that I am very grateful to all those who are helping me, and I will prove myself worthy of the trust placed in me." Mr. Schenck said: "Roscoe will go to work for me. I am glad to help in giving him his chance." Commenting on the new opportunity given the great comedian, Jesse Lasky, vice president of Famous Players-Lasky, which company formerly distributed the Arbuckle pictures, stated: "We are sure that Arbuckle will prove himself worthy of the trust. We have given no thought to the matter of releasing the pictures already made. We have no plans in that connection now."

NEW ROUTE INTO GLENDALE FROM L. A. PROPOSED

Local Officials in Favor of Using Hyperion Avenue, It Is Announced

A new route from Glendale to Los Angeles is being favored by the city administration.

A plan to have Hyperion avenue through the hills properly paved and connected by suitable roads with Glendale boulevard just south of the bridge across the Los Angeles river was endorsed yesterday noon by the City Council.

This matter was brought up at the joint luncheon of members of the city administration and directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

A. L. Barnes of 209 Huntley drive, Los Angeles, spoke enthusiastically in regard to the project. He called attention to the fact that this grade was easier than either Los Feliz road or Glendale boulevard and that it would give a more direct route to the beaches around Santa Monica bay.

Broad Boulevard

Hyperion avenue is reported to be a broad boulevard and in excellent condition. At the present time it extends from Riverside drive to Hoover street, about five blocks south of Santa Monica boulevard. It also crosses Sunset boulevard which would provide another method of reaching the central business district of Los Angeles.

City Manager W. H. Reeves states this morning that he looked with favor upon the project. He commented upon the prodigious development along Western avenue within the past two years and emphasized the expansion of the city of Los Angeles in that direction.

Mr. Barnes stated yesterday that he had already secured the indorsement of a number of civic organizations and chambers of commerce which would be affected by the new route.

Plan for Action

According to Mr. Reeves the project will be called to the attention of the City Council of Los Angeles and to the county Board of Supervisors in the near future. He stated that, in view of other county appropriations for the improvement of streets within the corporate limits of the city of Los Angeles, he did not see why the county should refuse to make an investment in this route.

The possibility of establishing some kind of transportation between Glendale and Los Angeles via this route is looked upon with favor by Mr. Reeves.

LEGION CONTEST HERE CALLED OFF

Basketball Schedule Will Be Changed as Result Of League Changes

The American legion basketball game which was scheduled here for Thursday night of this week, with the El Monte team, will not take place, announces Manager A. G. Wheelon of the Glendale team. Owing to the holidays and the fact that El Monte could not get ready in time, it has forfeited the game.

Practice will be held over until a week from Thursday night, December 28, at 7:30 o'clock, when the local team will meet at the high school gymnasium.

Manager Wheelon also announces that, owing to the admission of two or three new teams into the league, the schedule of games has had to be changed. It, therefore, cannot be stated just yet what team Glendale post will play next.

La Crescenta Scene Of Christmas Party

Col. James W. Everington, chairman of the Glendale Christmas tree celebration, and a group of local Community Service enthusiasts, journeyed to La Crescenta last night to direct a Christmas celebration in the La Crescenta high school. The affair proved to be a great attraction to the La Crescenta residents and the high school auditorium was filled to capacity, and it is said more than 200 persons stood outside in the court.

H. L. Lewis, song leader from Los Angeles was secured by the Glendale representatives to conduct the singing of old songs and Christmas carols, and he was most heartily received.

During the celebration there were vocal numbers by Wilbur Herwig, tenor, and Flora Kilpatrick, soprano. Mrs. Herwig and Mrs. Grand served as accompanists.

PROPOSE CHANGES FOR EAGLE ROCK ZONING RULES

Amendment to Ordinance Is Read for First Time at Board Meeting

The Board of Trustees of Eagle Rock at its Monday night meeting read for the first time an ordinance that will amend ordinance 194.

The new ordinance provides for the creating in the city of Eagle Rock four zones or districts and prescribing the classes of buildings, structures and improvements in the several zones that may be erected and the use to which they may be applied.

The portion of Eagle Rock coming under this section places the following described property under zone "C":

Lot 7 of Central tract, the first lot on Central avenue north of Colorado boulevard on the west side of Central avenue. This is known as the Fisher lot and is an extension of the business section.

Additional Lines

Lot 11 of the Oakmont tract on the north side of Colorado boulevard from the westerly line of lot 30 of the Mt. Helena tract then to the easterly line of lot 53 of the Mt. Helena tract. The property facing the southeast side of Colorado boulevard from the west line of lot 22, Hardwick Heights tract, and lots 5, 6, B7 and 8 of tract 5488, are included in district or zone "B."

LEGION AUXILIARY MEMBERSHIP IS GROWING FAST

Eagle Rock Organization Is Known for Charitable, Fraternal Work

The Eagle Rock auxiliary of the Theodora Koethen Post, American Legion, has made a very rapid and substantial growth since its organization at the home of Mrs. A. R. Rose of 211 North Acacia on October 13, 1921.

At that time the charter membership amounted to twelve, mothers, wives and sisters of the Legion members.

The membership has nearly doubled since then and is popularly known in Eagle Rock for its activities, especially along charitable and fraternal lines.

Several public functions have been given by the ladies during the past year, and by this means have been able to devote several hundred dollars to relief of world war veterans.

Trustees Consider Aiding Publication

George Van Sands, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Eagle Rock, presented a tentative prospectus to the Board of Trustees at its meeting Monday night, for approval, the trustees having signified its intention of helping in the publication of the booklet.

Immediate action was not taken on the proposition as the trustees did not feel that the prospectus was definite enough as to specifications. The subject is expected to be taken up at another meeting in the near future.

MYSTERY ATTACK MADE ON MAN BY MOTORISTS

Anton Leutherer Followed to Home by Pair and Is Severely Beaten

Warrants are out for the arrest of two men who followed Anton Leutherer, of 4553½ Alumni avenue, Highland Park district, to his home from Eagle Rock Tuesday night and after crowding him into the curb assaulted him.

Eagle Rock officers were notified of the assault at once. They took after the two who drove their Ford car rapidly away in the direction of San Fernando road.

But for the heroic action of Mrs. Charles Hyskell, of 4557 Alumni, near neighbor of Leutherer, the latter would undoubtedly have been badly used up. Mrs. Hyskell calmly walked into the fray and with the aid of other neighborhood women, put the men to flight.

The name on the certificate pasted on the windshield was E. B. Stetson, 5225 Market street, Lawndale, Cal. The license number was 470373. This information was secured by Mrs. Hyskell while the driver of the Ford was making a pretense of getting the license number of Mr. Leutherer's car. The lady said that both were in an intoxicated condition.

Is Trailed Home

According to the story told by Mr. Leutherer, he had started home from his work on Ridgeway street. Near Eagle Rock avenue, the two men in the Ford bumped him. He continued on his way home with the others trailing behind and at the side, using every effort apparently, to crowd him into the curb. Leutherer, who gathered the idea that they were attempting to rob him, put on speed and managed to get to a point directly in front of his home. The moment he stopped the others did likewise, stated Mr. Leutherer, and assaulted him as soon as he stepped to the ground. Several neighbors verified his statement.

A charge of assault and battery was immediately issued against the men, as well as a charge of reckless driving. The latter action would be held in Judge Cruzan's court at Eagle Rock. For the assault charge, the men when apprehended, will have to appear in Los Angeles.

Japanese water bags of rice paper are more durable than similar articles of rubber. Resin is used between the layers of paper, which is soft and flexible. The outside is covered with lacquer.

WHITE SUNDAY TO BE OBSERVED AT EAGLE ROCK

Congregational Church to Have Christmas Tree for Sunday School

Next Sunday is white Christmas at the Congregational church in Eagle Rock. The tree will be ready for the distribution of gifts in the evening. For that reason any boy or girl of the Sunday school having gifts to be put on the tree is kindly asked to bring them to the church as early as 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

The Sunday school is taking care of four Mexican families in Los Angeles. They are furnishing them with necessities as well as Christmas cheer. Members of the church are asked to help out with food or clothing or decorations. Autos from the Sunday school will distribute the articles Sunday afternoon.

Anything that is suitable for a tiny baby, a boy of fourteen or a girl of eighteen will be acceptable. In other words, "anything you would like yourself, if you hadn't much," will do.

L. A. Man Violates Speeding Ordinance

David Title, who claimed to be a branch manager of a music company, and who gave his address as 622 South Broadway, Los Angeles, was caught in the act of making forty-six miles an hour in the twenty mile zone, Eagle Rock, by Officer Williams yesterday afternoon.

Title was driving a new car. He said the cause of his rush was urgent business. He deposited $50 with the court for his appearance in Judge Cruzan's court Saturday, December 23.

The Chilean earthquake broke open an ancient graveyard, within ten miles of Copiapo, which may reveal valuable data.

'TIGER' RETURNS TO FRANCE ANGRY

Clemenceau Tells Reporters He Was Misquoted by French Press

By FRANK A. MASON
For International News Service.

HAVRE, Dec. 20. — The "Tiger" returned to France today in a sullen mood.

Newspaper men crowding about former Premier Georges Clemenceau when he walked down the gang plank from the steamer Paris here today, were met with almost startling statements.

"The interview was false," he snapped, when asked about the famous interview that appeared in the Petit Parisien, in which he was quoted as favoring President Harding's intervention in the reparations program and also quoted him as declaring France should immediately ratify the Washington treaties.

"Does that mean you are opposed to President Harding's intervention?" he was asked.

"The interview was false. I have nothing to say," the ex-premier snapped as he walked away.

About a hundred of his countrymen turned out to greet the tiger. They raised a cheer as the squat figure came into sight walking down the gang plank. He acknowledged the cheers with a wave of his hand.

Met by Family

Clemenceau's son and daughter; Andre Tardieu, long one of the "Tiger's" strongest supporters; Georges Mandel, formerly chamber of deputies reporter on the Washington naval treaty, and several deputies who have supported Clemenceau, were out to meet the Paris.

Mandel greeted the "Tiger" very coolly. Tardieu immediately asked him what the Ruhr statement meant. Before the former premier could answer the two — Mandel and Tardieu hustled Clemenceau away for a private conference. It was known that they were protesting violently against the views expressed by the "Tiger" opposing French occupation of the Ruhr.

After a quarter of an hour, Clemenceau appeared and started for his motor that was to take him to Paris. It was then that he hurled his denial of the interview to the assembled newspapermen.

As he got into his automobile he again uttered a denial, adding: "It was pure imagination, purely fantastic. I said only that fear of another world war will come if the Ruhr is occupied."

Tardieu, standing by, was plainly pleased by the tiger's denial. He rubbed his hands with satisfaction and made sure all the newspapermen present got the denial.

Mandel, speaking to the newspapermen, declared he is satisfied now the former premier will reverse his attitude and will come out against the Washington treaty.

"I had a bad trip," Clemenceau said. "The crossing was mighty rough and I was unable to sleep nights. Several were injured by the pitching of the ship. I hope for success of my trip. America will show whether I succeeded."

Asked if America showed interest in his visit the "Tiger" nodded a vigorous reply in the affirmative.

Cecil Sorel, the noted French actress, who was aboard the Paris, commented on the "Tiger's" surliness.

"I guess the 'Tiger' is in a bad humor because he was up too late last night," she said.

It was learned after the Paris docked that at a charity auction Clemenceau's autographed photograph sold for 650 francs, while one of Mlle. Sorel brought 2000 francs.

THREAT TO CALL OFF AGREEMENT

Great Britain Only Nation To Make Real Attempt At Disarming, Claim

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Charging that Great Britain is the only nation that has made a real attempt to carry out the provisions of the Washington naval disarmament treaty, Admiral Sir Reginald Harel M. P., former director of British naval intelligence, today declared it would be perfectly proper for that nation to suggest calling off the agreement altogether.

"It is now more than twelve months since the Washington agreement was concluded, but what has happened?" he asked in discussing the treaty.

"We are the only people who have made a real attempt to carry out the terms of the agreement. It would be perfectly proper if Great Britain said to the other countries: 'A reasonable time for ratification of the treaties now has elapsed. If there is no disposition to ratify them then the best policy is to call off the agreement and generally reconsider our positions.'

"The naval appropriations bill, suggesting a small ships agreement, offers an equally small chance of success. What the world really wants is to forget theoretical naval questions and concentrate upon an international conference regarding aerial warfare. If an agreement on this question is realized then it will be possible to minimize the terrible horrors which the first aerial war will bring upon the civil populations. We should also settle the submarine difficulty. Those populations which are unable to exercise the right to search, bomb and torpedo ships on sight are likely to supplant the submarines now performing functions exercised by submarines with added barbarism.

"Every European air force now boasts of the desolation which it would be able to bring upon enemy countries. There is no longer any distinction between armies and civilian populations. What is really necessary to the world is to regulate the methods of aerial warfare immediately and not worry over naval technicalities."

DISPATCH NOTES TO SANTA CLAUS

Many Letters at Glendale Postoffice; They Will Be Sent 'Headquarters'

It's the simple Christmas wants scribbled from childish hearts by tiny hands and addressed to "Santa Claus, North Pole," and received at the Glendale postoffice, that carry the real human interest of the Christmastide. They are being sent to "headquarters" of Santa Claus.

They all bespeak utmost faith in the patron saint of childhood, but some of the little notes come a bit closer to the hearts of those who chance to read them.

A happy confidence of what Christmas morn will bring can be read plainly between the lines of some of the childish messages, but it is in those in which poverty and want are hinted at that one finds the real pathos.

Countless of these Santa Claus letters are received at the postoffices in the United States every holiday season and Glendale is receiving its share this year.

Saxophone and Chalk

Among those received this morning was one scribbled on a piece of rough, ruled scratch paper. Upon finishing the note the little writer had not worried about an envelope but had folded the paper, drawn a stamp in one corner and directed it to "Santa Claus, North Pole."

He was a little fellow only 4 years old, but he had a big want in his heart as well as a musical soul, for he said:

"Dear Santa Claus, i am 4 yers old i want a litle saxaphone i want a box of colored chalk for my black board too. with luv billy."

It is said that Mr. Tweedale has had experience in dramatic directorship in England and Canada and he suggests that Glendale churches and other organizations present Wilson Barrett's "The Sign of the Cross."

Turkey to Answer British Ultimatum

LAUSANNE, Dec. 20. — The members of the Turkish delegation held a long conference today regarding the ultimatum of the allies that the allied plan for administration of the straits must be acepted or rejected without further parleying.

Attaches of the Turkish delegation declared the members had made up their minds not to yield. It is believed the Turks will make a formal reply to the allies to that effect later in the day.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Though unable to leave his bed, Wallace Reid, internationally famous film hero, will have his Christmas at the sanitarium where he is making a winning fight for his life after a three months' serious illness. A miniature Christmas tree, trimmed by the nimble fingers of his wife, Dorothy Davenport, will be taken to the star's bedside There with their two little youngsters Betty, 3, and Billy, 6, "Wally" and his wife will gather for a brief Christmas party Sunday evening. THEATRES

The Glendale

Bert Lytell in "The Right That Failed," a Bayard Veiller production for Metro, is to be seen today at the Glendale Theatre. Coming as it does as an adaptation from a Saturday Evening Post story by J. P. Marquard, one thing is certain from the start and that is that the story has a wide appeal. And the Veiller and Metro names upon it are sure stamps of quality workmanship. Finally, Bert Lytell's name in the title role should satisfy the most critical that here is a picture well worth seeing.

Bert plays the diverting part of a "highbrow" prize ring hero who courts a society girl, concealing from her his profession because of her distaste for it. How in the end he delivers a blow that goes to the hearts of his sweetheart and adversary as well, makes a thrilling film.

The T. D. & L.

Today is the last day you can see Constance Talmadge in the great role of Ming Toy, in "East is West," at the T. D. & L. Theatre—see her defending herself, literally tooth and nail, from the unwelcome advances of the rich Chinese merchant, see her getting acquainted with American customs, watching the jazzers in Kelly's dance hall, learning to chew gum, practicing the ancient and honorable art of winking—and above all, see her in her glorious, triumphant fight for the man she loves.

Most conspicuous in her support is Warner Oland, while others include Nigel Barrie, Lillian Lawrence and Jim Wang. Sidney Franklin directed the production, from the very celebrated stage success, "East is West," for the screen rights to which Producer Joseph M. Schenck paid a fortune.

EAST, WEST TREE AT SPOHR STORE

Beauty and Artistic Effect of Display Win Many Sincere Compliments

The Spohr drug store at the northwest corner of Brand boulevard and Broadway is proving a real mecca for holiday shoppers, for in the center of the store and in one of the front windows Mrs. A. G. Spohr has arranged and decorated two Christmas trees that are unrivaled in beauty and artistic effects.

Mrs. Spohr was inspired to express the spirit of the holiday time in the east by one tree and the other was to be a western tree. The success she attained may best be measured by the wide recognition the trees have received and by the many visitors who daily journey to the store to see them.

Standing in a glistening snow bank the tree in the window at the Spohr store breathes of the cold biting Christmas weather of the far east.

Real Work of Art

Shining icicles clinging to the branches laden with tinsels, gay ornaments all bring the east back to former residents of the colder climates. A special touch of the warmth of Christmas cheer is seen in the cunning candle light globes used to light the tree.

For exquisite beauty the western tree, mounted on a table in the interior of the store should receive first mention. It is a real work of art. Each branch is fringed with fine tinsel and lighted by tiny colored light globes with floral shades.

The trees are real holiday features and the Spohr store is inviting old and young to pay them a visit if for nothing more than to see the Christmas trees.

GEO. T. SMITH WILL BE 'SANTA'

Local Auto Dealer Will Distribute Four Cars on Xmas Morning

George T. Smith, Glendale distributer for the Overland and Willys-Knight cars, reports that his salesroom at 228 South Brand boulevard this week is abounding with Christmas cheer galore.

Four cars have already been sold since Monday for delivery to the recipients on Christmas morning, he states. He said he expects several more to be contracted for before Christmas day rolls round.

Special care is being taken by Mr. Smith to assure that the Christmas cars will be suitably decorated for their presentation. They will be driven up to the homes of the new owners at 4 a. m. Christmas morning, he says.

December Sales Big

Mr. Smith reports also that December sales of Overland and Willys-Knights are exceeding all expectations. He asserts that business this month is surpassing all records for corresponding months of past years.

He also says that the new disc-wheel Overland sedan, which is featured in the Christmas window now on display at the firm's headquarters, is attracting considerable attention. A large number of motorists have called in to inspect the car since it has been on exhibition here, he states.

MOTOR CAR SALES IN MONTH OF NOVEMBER SET NEW MARK

Forty-eight Per Cent Greater Than Figures Established Year Ago, So Records Show

AGAIN all records in California have been broken by the sales reported of motor cars in the month of November, according to the figures reported in December issue of Motor Registration News, published in Oakland by F. Walter Crinnion.

The statistics show that the total sales of passenger cars and trucks in this state for last month was 48 per cent greater than that registered by the same month a year ago.

Passenger cars made the largest gain, for the figures just released show a comparison of 15,604 sales in contrast to 10,424 in November, 1921, leaving a net gain of 5180 car sales, equivalent to 49 per cent, 1 per cent better than when averaged with the truck industry. The figures on the latter give us this comparison, 1761 trucks registered in November last as compared to 1234 a year ago in November. This registers an increase of 520 or 42 per cent.

The aggregate of figures of cars and trucks which gives this State the 48 per cent increase this year over last, shows that the sales in the month of November, 1922, were 5707 greater than the 11,658 sales made a year ago, which shows that the different branches of the Motor Vehicle Department have added to the already enormous list of owners, another 17,365 new registered vehicles.

Southland in Lead

Southern California, in the passenger car industry, leads the North by 7 per cent. The figures found to make this comparison are: Northern California passenger cars a year ago 4299, as compared to 6268 November last, leaving a gain of 1969 new sales, or 45 per cent, whereas in the South there is a 52 per cent gain or 3211 more sales made than a year ago November. We find the totals at 6124 compared to 9336 this year.

Northern California, however, seems to have it on its Southern sister when it comes to the per cent gain in the truck industry. Southern registrations show 38 per cent, or an advance of 278 sales more than the 718 made in November, 1921. The Northern figures show that there were 516 new truck owners last year as compared to 765 November past, the gain being equivalent to 249 sales, or 48 per cent.

Analyzing the situation finer, comparison has been made of a few of the largest counties. Los Angeles, making the largest number of sales, shows 202 more sales than the next fourteen largest counties combined. The latter county's record is the largest yet recorded this year, or 6761 sales. It also is an increase of 2442 over the same period of last year, or equaling 56 per cent.

The largest per cent gain is registered by San Diego county. The figures involved are 639 sales this year as against 348, or 83 per cent increase.

Alameda County is a very close second with an 82 per cent increase, but the amount of sales considerably more. In other words, the latter county's gain was 429 sales, being an increase over the 520 sales which were made last year, this year's mark being 949.

Fresno in no way is letting up on its past record, as analysis shows 775 sales, which is an increase of 323 over the 452 sales made last year, the gain being equal to 71 per cent.

Our capital city is also holding its own, with a 57 per cent increase, or 129 sales more than the 223 made the previous year.

Tying for fifth and sixth position are Los Angeles and Stanislaus Counties, both registering a 56 per cent gain. Los Angeles County's totals being many times larger than its rival, naturally shows the greatest number of sales. We will compare 6761 sales of November, 1922, against 4319 a year ago and show a handsome gain of 2442, while in the case of Stanislaus county we compare 140 as against 218 sales this year, leaving its increase 79 sales.

PROPOSE CHANGE IN TRAFFIC LAWS

Suggest Elimination of All Reports Where Property Damage Only Loss

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—In conference with Captain James McDowell, head of the police traffic bureau, and Assistant City Attorney Lewis E. Whitehead, the public safety committee of the city council recommended a revision of the existing law so as not to require any accident reports involving property damage.

Assistant City Attorney Whitehead estimated that between sixty and seventy per cent of the accidents now being reported to the police involve the question of property damage and are of an inconsequential nature.

"Property damage is a question for a civil action," said Whitehead. "Furthermore I don't think we have a legal right to require reports on accidents involving property damage.

Called Unpleasant

"There is no question but that the city is getting a lot of unpleasant notoriety right now because of the present ordinance requiring all so-called accidents to be reported to the police."

The public safety committee recommended revision in the traffic ordinance so as to prohibit the left-hand turn upon leaving alleys in the district in which left-hand turns are prohibited at street intersections. It was pointed out that the prohibitnon of the left-hand turn upon leaving St. Vincent place on Seventh street between Broadway and and Hill was particularly desired.

The committee also recommended the proposed ordinance permitting right-hand turns in the business district outside of the congested district.

Tools For Cleaning

The proper equipment needed to wash a car should include two clean, soft sponges, two good-sized pails, several soft chamois skins, some flannel cloths, a cake of pure soap, clear running water, a hose without a nozzle and a soft duster.

Billion Dollars for Trucks During 1922

One billion dollars have been spent in 1922 for motor trucks and motor truck equipment.

Commercial cars built during this year have reached a total value in excess of $250,000,000. More than $175,000,000 was spent for tires used for replacement; gasoline consumed by motor trucks cost $250,000,000 more; lubricating oils, $37,000,000; special bodies, $60,000,000; parts and replacements and supplies, $73,000,000; special equipment claimed, $15,000,000, and labor, including overhauling and repairing, $150,000,000.

These figures show that it cost as much for gasoline to keep all these trucks running during the year as it did to manufacture them. The quantity figures approximately 1,200,000,000 gallons.

There are close to 5,000,000 tires being used on trucks costing nearly $200,000,000, to say nothing of the wages paid to the drivers, and the profits made by the operators of the huge truck fleets and the quantity of things transported by this modern mode of transportation.

One billion dollars for motor transportation for 1922, and the ball just started rolling.

What will be spent ten years hence, including highway construction contemplated to accommodate the huge increase in cross-country travel?

Sound Your Horn On Mountain Roads

Honk! Honk! Are you afraid to sound your auto horn this winter? Failure on the part of auto drivers to sound their horns on the mountains and on the curves of some of the important roads is proving a cause of many serious accidents this winter, according to the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Winter rains make slippery roads—particularly in the mountainous sections—and as you all know there is no stopping the folks of Southern California from going right up in the mountains at this time of the year as well as in the summer, and so it is just as well to be free with the use of the horn now as at any other time.

Some of the coast roads of California wind around steep cliffs with many sharp turns where the road is narrow—and the horn should be honked at every blind curve, particularly when the road is wet and slippery, as it is liable to be during the next few weeks.

Some auto drivers think it is smart to let the horn get rusty from not using it, but there is nothing clever in this and it often leads to unfortunate mixups on the road, says the Auto club.

Never Too Old

Motors salvaged from wrecked cars are put to some ingenious uses. Two brothers in Macoda, Wis., used one to drive an ice cutting machine that they invented to do the work of several men and which sawed through a solid lake crust sixteen inches thick.

Don't Take Chances Coasting Down Hill

There is far too great a tendency on the part of the average automobile driver to take a chance. We are all like that to some extent. When we coast down a hill we are willing to let chance decide whether or not there is a car coming, and sometimes the goddess of chance plays a mean trick and there is trouble sure to follow.

There is no reason why the average motorist should be in such a hurry that he cannot drive so that the car is under control at all times.

Good brakes, of course, are the best safety devices that you can have on your automobile. If you try to stop your car with poor brakes you may underestimate the braking power and go too far and strike something. Brakes should be tested all the time. It is a mighty poor driver who does not know whether the brakes on his car are good or not. He knows, but is too indifferent towards their action to have them adjusted or relined.

Too Near to Curb Injurious to Tires

Even the most skillful and prudent of motorists will occasionally drive too near the curb, it is said, and find when he goes to drive away that he cannot turn his wheels without scraping them against the curb and seriously injuring them.

The injury entailed to the tires by this condition is considerable and a tire expert suggests a practical way of handling the situation.

When the motorist has driven too close to the curb, it is a good idea to put the jack under the front axle and to lift the front wheels a few inches from the ground. Then if he will give his car a substantial push sideways off the jack away from the curb, he will find that he has enough space to turn his wheels without scraping his tires against the curb.

Taught In College

Columbia university in its extension department has started a course in automobile engineering, aiming to give the motorist a working knowledge of the internal combustion engine. Frederick Dutcher of the school of engineering will conduct the course.

Washing Equipment

The proper equipment needed to wash a car should include two clean soft sponges, two good-sized pails, several soft chamois skins, some flannel cloths, a cake of pure soap, clear running water, a hose without a nozzle and a soft duster.

Cattle Trucks

The growth of motor transportation of live stock is the most outstanding feature of trucking into and out of Kansas City, Mo. In one day, 132 head of cattle, 116 calves, 469 hogs and 426 sheep were recently shipped by motor truck.

Detroit Auto Show Dates Are Selected

With better than 85 per cent of the space already taken by members of the Detroit Automobile Dealers' association, Detroit's twenty-third annual auto show to be held January 20 to 27 has all the earmarks of being a hummer.

The show will be held in the new Municipal garage building and comes between the New York and Chicago shows, thus assuring Detroit of a far better representation that might otherwise be had.

Get Extra Mileage

The tires of an automobile often go a further distance than the score shown on the speedometer. The instrument never registers when the car is backed, skidding, or the extra mileage covered when one of the wheels is out of alignment.

GREAT RUSH WILL START IN JANUARY, SO GET PREPARED

What to Do to Obtain New Certificate and Also If You Are Not Resident In State

MOTORISTS should begin to plan very soon on making themselves ready for the state license rush of the new year, say officials of the Automobile Club of Southern California. There are many things of importance to be done before a large number of auto owners are even ready to ask for their new licenses, point out the Auto Club officers, and right now is the time to begin thinking them over.

The big rush for renewals will start in January, and the Automobile club, in preparing to handle this rush for its thousands of members has also prepared a list of things that must be done before the average motorist is ready to step up to the window and ask for his 1923 license plates. Here is what the club advises in the way of preparation for the January rush:

Obtain a new certificate if the old one is lost or illegible to such an extent that the owner's name or car description cannot be read. The 1922 certificate of registration will act as the application for renewal. New certificates can be obtained by applying to the local offices of the license departments for application blanks, or they are available at Auto Club offices. Applications for duplicate certificates must be forwarded to the main office of the license department at Sacramento, fee 50 cents.

Signature of Owner

If your address has been changed during the year call at the local license department, notify them and receive a new certificate with the correct address thereon. If your motor number is wrongly noted on the certificate apply at the local license department for correction. If your car was purchased on lease contract and has been fully paid for during the year it will be necessary to secure the signature of the legal owner on your certificate in order to release his name shown thereon.

If you have purchased a used car during the year do not fail to record the transfer immediately and secure a certificate in your name.

Operators' licenses do not have to be renewed annually, but all automobile drivers must possess and carry one whenever operating a car.

Non-resident motorists who have secured a California permit, the expiration date of which is prior to January 20, must secure a California license, paying for the last quarter of 1922, and before February 1 (in January) such applicants must renew their license for the year 1923.

Visiting Motorists

If your car has been in storage for the full year of 1922 (license year dates from February 1,) 1923 license plates can be secured by producing an affidavit of storage and 1921 certificate of registration. Visiting motorists are required to regsiter their cars within twenty-four hours after their arrival in the state. Application blanks for registration purposes and assistance in filling them out can be secured at any office of the Auto club.

Non-residents' cars must be personally inspected by officials of the license department in cases where the applicant resides within seventy-five miles of a branch of that department. If farther than that, then the car will have to be inspected by the local chief of police.

Change of Body

Motorists who have changed the type or style of the body on chassis must apply to the local license department or their local police department and secure what is called a "dissasembly certificate." This must accompany the application for renewal.

Non-residents must produce evidence in the form of a certificate of registration issued by their home state license department, showing that their cars are properly registered in their own name in their home state. That certificate must also give the current license number and correct description of the car registered. In lieu of such certificate, a telegram from the secretary of state in which the applicant resides containing the desired information.

Stay Out of Storm, Advises Auto Club

A bitter storm lesson was learned last winter in California by thousands of motorists who went out in the rain and freak storms to find out what it was all about, point out officials of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

As a result they found themselves caught in the snow on the Ridge Route and some of the mountain passes and had a terrible time trying to get food and heat.

"Don't go sightseeing in the rain, wind or snow." Sudden cloudbursts have a habit of washing out even the strongest bridges.

LOCAL MAN LIKES HIS STUDEBAKER

C. L. Chandler Purchases Thirteen New Models Since Year 1907

C. L. Chandler, prominent Glendale realtor, has just received delivery of a late Big Six Studebaker speedster from the Packer Auto Company, local Studebaker dealers, 245 South Brand boulevard.

This car is said to make the thirteenth Studebaker purchased by Mr. Chandler since 1907. Five of the cars were purchased from the Packer company.

Mr. Chandler's speedster is equipped with all the latest auto appliances. It is very fashionable in design, and will undoubtably be observed this week about the streets of Glendale.

New Sedans Selling

The Golden State sedan Special Six Studebaker with the California top is proving exceptionaly popular with motor fans throughout the valley, Don Packer, of the Packer company, reported yesterday. He said that two cars of this model had been sold already this week.

One was purchased by Mrs. Louise Purnell, of Glendale; and the other was purchased by a party in San Fernando. The car in question has been named the "Golden State sedan" because of its adaptability to California's climate. One of this model is now on display in the Packer company's salesroom.

High speed turbine pumps have been designed to be mounted on passenger automobiles and operated by their motors to enable them to be used as fire engines.

BUICK AUTO SETS NEW SALE MARK

Registrations for November Totaled 1202; Ranks Third Best Seller

All previous records for monthly registrations were shattered in California during the month of November by the Buick car, according to a statement issued by Roy L. Galvin, of Tanner & Hall, local Buick distributers. Mr. Galvin says that the official registrations of automobiles in the state shows that 1202 Buick cars were registered by owners. The only cars that showed a larger registration were the Ford and Chevrolet, he said.

"The phenomenal success and popularity of the Buick in California is not purely local," Mr. Galvin states. "The same condition exists everywhere. The new 1923 line of Buick cars virtually took the country by storm and since August 1, when the first models were shown to the public, there has been the keenest demand for both open and closed Buicks.

Sport Made Impression

"The sport models originally made a most favorable impression and when the sport touring and the other attractive sedans, coupes and open cars which grace the line of fourteen cars manufactured this season by the Buick Motor Company were introduced, the motoring public everywhere fell in love with them. The result has been that the capacity of the Buick plant has been inadequate to turn out cars fast enough to supply the demand, especially closed car models.

"Since November 1, when we were able to get sufficient freight cars in which to transport the cars from the factory to the Pacific coast, twelve solid trainloads of Buicks have been shipped to the distributing centers of the Howard Automobile company. In this way we have in a measure, been able to satisfy the desire of the people who have placed their orders for cars."

During the month of November Mr. Galvin asserted, Tanner & Hall sold fifteen new Buick cars in Glendale. Returns on sales so far this month indicate that December will set a new monthly sales record, he said.

SAVING SAM HAS GREAT FOLLOWING

First Appears Four Years Ago But Quickly Wins Numerous Friends

Perhaps no trade character being used in the west is better known or has a more definite significance to every person who may see him pictured than "Saving Sam" of the Western Auto Supply Co. In the four years that "Sam" has been representing the "Saving and Service policy of the company he has become almost a national character in the attention he has attracted to himself and his company.

It was four years ago (on October the twentieth, 1918), that "Saving Sam" first appeared in an ad for the company. He was a slender, bashful little fellow with a mop of black hair, pictured as pointing to a blackboard on which this message was written, "Western Auto is the largest retail auto supply house in the west." Sam's message went over with the public and he was given each week a new story to tell his readers.

Since that time "Sam" has appeared in public so much that he has overcome his bashfulness and taken on the air of a successful business man.

He has grown a mustache, he has taken on weight, he sticks his chest out with the air of confidence of the man who knows success.

He has appeared in motor publications all up and down the Pacific coast, he has been written up by special writers for some national magazines. The special merchandising sections of some large newspapers have referred to "Sam" as a shining example of a successful trade character.

Appears Everywhere

Each week Sam appears in large ads of his company in more than seventy newspapers up and down the Pacific coast and as far east as Denver and Phoenix. "Sam" also appears many times in thousands of catalogues put out by his company twice each year.

On the highways, "Sam" appears on the large bulletin boards reminding motorists of his company stores as headquarters for motorists, and on hundreds of little roadside signs he tells drivers the mileage to the next "Western Auto" store and town.

In the stores "Sam" is used in papier-mache posters, and forms a very important part of every window display.

In the office of the president of the Western Auto Supply Company in Los Angeles, an oil painting of "Sam" occupies a place of honor. This painting is a gift to Mr. and Mrs. Pepperdine from R. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, the artist who originated and always draws "Sam's" pictures.

When "Sam" was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Pepperdine in 1918 there were only five stores under the company banner. Now there are more than sixty of them, and they will total more than five million dollars' worth of business during 1922. Perhaps that fact tells best of "Sam's" success.

MAXWELL SPORT ATTRACTS PUBLIC

New Car Wins Large Number of Friends Here, Says Lyman P. Clark

"The interest shown by the public in the new Maxwell sport model has been greater than was expected," Lyman P. Clark, of the Glendale Motor company, 124 West Colorado street, stated yesterday.

An unusually large number of people have been in his plant to look at the new car, he said.

"One particularly pleasing thing is the prospect of early delivery," he stated. "We are now able to accept orders on this car for ten days' delivery, if the present rate of shipment can be maintained.

"It is pleasing, indeed, to all Maxwell owners, as well as the Maxwell organization, to see how favorably the new Maxwell models have been received by the American public. Those who have been watching the Maxwell for the past year are now thoroughly convinced of its exceptional sturdiness and unusual motor car value.

"Thousands of Maxwell cars have been sold in southern California and they have given their owners 100 per cent service, with an unusually low operating expense. It is for these reasons the Maxwell is outselling today."

QUICK ACTION ON ROADSTER'S SALE

New Chevrolet Creation Is Received by C. L. Smith; Bought at Once

C. L. Smith, local Chevrolet dealer, yesterday was delivered the new 1923 Chevrolet roadster. Five minutes later the car was the property of Walter Gibson, of Glendale.

The new roadster, Mr. Smith says, had just been driven up from the railway depot to his showroom, and attaches of his plant were engaged in spotting the new car for display when Mr. Gibson came in; looked the car over, and said he would take it. The entire transaction took only a few minutes, he said.

"In body design and general construction the new roadster is a great improvement over the old one," Mr. Smith states. "One of the most noticeable features lies in the one-piece body, which can't be removed. Heretofore, the roadsters had the turtle-back bodies.

Accommodations Changed

"The seat arrangement, upholstering and other accommodations have also been changed considerably, as compared with last year's roadster. There is room in the rear of the new model for a steamer trunk and one suit case."

Mr. Smith says that the new roadster is the last word in fashion. That, together with the well known ability of the Chevrolet to deliver entire satisfaction, promises to place the new roadster among the Chevrolet company's best sellers, he states.

NEW MODEL NASH HAS LATE DEVICE

Self Mounting Carrier Now Equipped on Late Disc Wheel Touring

E. B. Sutton, of the Glendale Nash Sales, says that the new self-mounting carrier equipment now installed on the new Nash touring car is meeting with the approval of the motoring public generally. The equipment is affixed to all Nash cars with disc wheels.

Operation of the carrier, Mr. Sutton states, is extremely simple. He says that any woman driver can unfasten the extra tire from the Nash roadster, and install it on the axle without any effort whatsoever.

In fact, he says it is not really necessary for one to touch the tire when removing it from the rack or while placing it on the axle. Little iron handles, which fit into slots in the disc wheel; make perfect handholds, he asserts.

Mr. Sutton says that motorists who have dropped into his place to inspect the new self mounting device show not only interest in the demonstration, but also enthusiasm. The simplicity of the Nash innovation wins motorists generally, he says.

LATE FORD SEDAN NOW ON DISPLAY

Jesse E. Smith Showing New Four Door Sedan at Local Salesroom

Henry Ford's new four-door sedan is creating quite a sensation in Glendale, according to Clair R. D'Arge, sales manager for Jesse E. Smith, local Ford distributer. The new model, which arrived in the city Saturday, is now on display at the Jesse Smith salesroom, 125 West Colorado street.

Mr. D'Arge stated yesterday that so great has been the crowds that have called in person to inspect the new model that it has been found necessary to keep two salesmen on the salesfloor continuously. Large numbers of telephone inquiries have been received by this firm, also, he said.

Innovations in Equipment

One of the equipment innovations on the new car is the special dome light, which is operated by a button on the rear body of the pillar. Also, the interior of the sedan, the door handles, etc., are finished in oxidized silver.

The upholstering is effected with black stripe material, which is much stronger than the kind used heretofore. A brown material is used also with the black to offset the appearance of dust. Silk curtains for the rear windows are supplied with the car.

Mr. D'Arge announces that people desiring Fords can have them delivered to their homes on Christmas morning by placing their orders immediately.

Throughout the United States there is a registration of 9,467,874 private passenger automobiles, 55,990 taxis and busses and 1,096,605 motor trucks.

Jess Willard Gives Boxing 'Exhibition'

PORTLAND, Dec. 20.—Jess Willard, 265-pound Kansan, who insists he can dethrone Jack Dempsey, heavyweight king, romped through four rounds of exhibition boxing last night against Jim Borden and Scotty Messer.

Fans who turned out solely to see Willard were not disappointed in his size. He played with his opponents — each seventy-five pounds lighter than he—and stuck out his huge mid-section and chest for targets to show the fans he is getting back into shape for his hoped for bout against Dempsey.

The main bout was a whizzer. Joe Egan gained a hairline decision over Jimmy Darcy. Egan boxed all around Darcy in the early rounds but the rugged Rumanian came back and in the last few rounds exchanged sock for sock.

REDUCES RECORD ON STORMY TRIP

Reo Speed Wagon Sets New Mark Delivering Dessert To White House

A Reo Speed Wagon, dispatched from Chicago, Ill., by a corporation to Washington, D. C., carrying a giant frozen dessert for President Harding's Thanksgiving dinner clipped nine hours and forty-six minutes off the previous record made by a motor truck for this distance, according to Mr. White of the Harry E. White, Inc. The time for the 801 miles was twenty-seven hours and forty-eight minutes.

The Speed Wagon in addition to carrying the frozen dainty to the president, also transported a one-ton pay load. The vehicle and its drivers encountered fierce snow storms in the Cumberland mountains, a fact that prevented the drivers from cutting down the running time of the loaded Speed Wagon.

Told in Telegrams

The story of the trip is told in two telegrams received by Mr. White, as follows:

"Speed Wagon transporting giant dessert for President Harding's Thanksgiving dinner and carrying more than one-ton pay load left Chicago at 9:03 o'clock Tuesday morning and arrived at Washington, a total distance of 801 miles, 1:51 o'clock, eastern time, Wednesday afternoon, exactly twenty-seven hours and forty-eight minutes after they left Chicago. This phenomenal run made in face of bad snow conditions encountered in Cumberland mountains clips nine hours and forty-six minutes off previous record. Drivers Leulhstrom and Sowle were met by Jow Trew and a reporter for the Washington Star who escorted Speed Wagon through town to White House."

The second wire was sent to J. Leo Sugrue, Washington, of the Washington Star reportorial staff:

"Reo Speed Wagon delivering dessert to President Harding for Thanksgiving arrived in Washington and checked by me at district line, 1:18 p. m., time twenty-seven hours, forty-eight minutes from Chicago to Washington; mileage, 801; gasoline consumed sixty-nine gallons, eight quarts of oil; condition of truck and tires A1."

The Short Crucible

By Davis J. Walsh

International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Having been just a bit premature in the naming of players who were to figure in the transaction whereby Eddie Collins was to come to New York, the Yankees now find themselves in the unenviable position of having to rid themselves of Aaron Ward and Bob Meusel or attempt to get by next season with a pair of disgruntled ball players in their lineup. Neither Ward nor Meusel is the type that will take kindly to the inferred slight upon their ability.

They will and probably do feel that they are not wanted here and another season in a Yankee uniform would be barely tolerable. Yank officials probably realize this also for the Collins deal was barely cold when negotiations with Connie Mack were opened, looking toward the shunting of Ward and Meusel to Philadelphia. The Yankees wanted Jimmy Dykes and Connie intimated that they could have him provided they gave up a couple of first string pitchers in addition to Ward. The deal back-fired and without further notice.

Subsequently it was planned to place Ward and Meusel in the open mark. This also was dropped when it was realized that outside of Cleveland, Washington and perhaps Detroit, no other American league clubs would make suitable offers.

The Red Sox, for example, have no trading material, the Browns could use a third baseman, but would have to break up their infield somewhat to get Ward, and the Tigers, provided Cobb is satisfied with Del Pratt as a second baseman, are not interested.

The Indians would most certainly be much interested if Speaker had any players to offer, but his team is shot almost beyond recall.

It would therefore seem that the Yanks must do business with the Senators, Athletics or the White Sox, and of the three, the original proposition to send Ward and Meusel to Chicago is the most plausible.

As a matter of fact, this deal has never been dropped altogether. Both clubs have gone too far for that and it is the opinion of baseball men that the trade will be consummated, in one form or another, before the teams go south for spring training.

Little notice was taken last week of the Cook County Interscholastic swimming championships held at Chicago. That a school boy swam the 100 yards in 55 3-5 seconds was lightly passed over and yet this is the first boy to break into scholastic swimming record prominence for the 100 yards since February 12, 1916, when Leo Handy of Brookline, Mass., startled the world by swimming the century in 56 4-5.

Now comes young Mr. Richard Howell of Hyde Park high school. Chicago and takes a full 1 1-5 second off Handy's mark, a new world record for school boys.

In the same meet the Hyde Park school relay team set a new interscholastic medley relay mark of 2:14 4-5. That scholastic swimming is on the up grade is also evidenced by the fact that Mercersburg academy on December 9, broke the 200-yard relay record with 1:42 2-5 or an average of about 25 2-5 seconds for each boy for the fifty yards. The new record broke the mark made in 1920 by the Phillips Andover team by 3 1-5 seconds.

Practically ostracized from the ring, former world heavyweight champion Jack Johnson is now looking round to find a negro he can develop with the idea of winning the title through his coaching. He has hooked up with a young husky named George Godfrey and Johnson has great ideas of the future for his protege. Godfrey—the name takes us back several decades to the famous negro of other times in the ring—is said to be a real hitter. He knows how to hit and keep from being slammed and Johnson hopes to develop him gradually and then send him after the world heavy colored title now held by Harry Wills. Later of course, Godfrey will make an attempt for the larger world crown provided, of course, he develops along the lines Johnson expects he will.

The definite recognition of women in athletics by the A. A. U. and the recent formation of a national governing body for women's sports of all kinds puts the fair sex on the athletic map after many years of argument pro and con on the advisability of women participating in strenuous sports.

Athletics for women under proper supervision tend to beneficial results. That has been admitted by physicians. The harm comes in lack of supervision and the newly created national organization headed by Dr. Stewart is going to see to it that proper supervision is always resorted to in sports for women. It took a long time to establish swimming for women from the competitive point of view. This sport has come to stay and has not up to the present been proved anything but of beneficial gain to the girls.

Standardized track and field sports, baseball, indoor baseball can easily be added to the girls' lists with the same beneficial results as tennis or swimming.

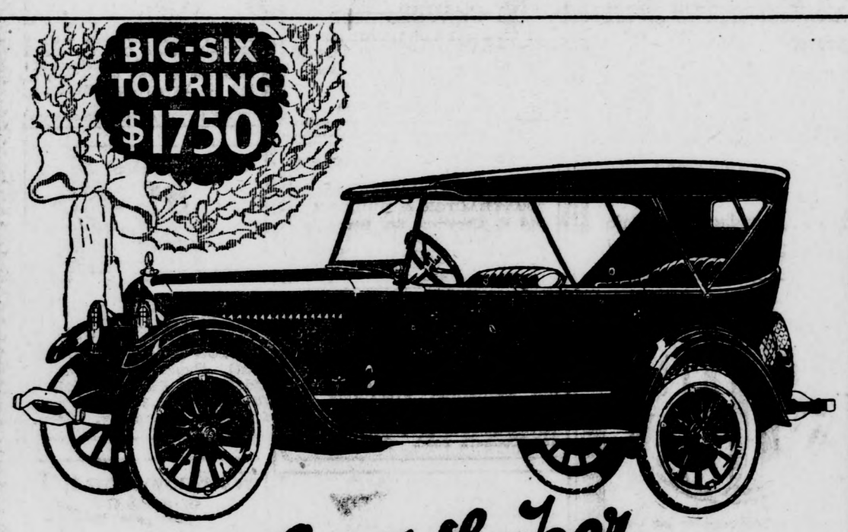
BIG-SIX TOURING $1750



Studebaker

Veterans Perform Like Youngsters

Nine Studebaker Big-Six Touring Cars, with a total of one million miles to their credit, recently participated in an economy-reliability contest conducted by the Studebaker dealer at Los Angeles.

All came through with perfect scores except two—one had dirt in the gasoline pipe, the other required a slight adjustment of brakes.

This is the most convincing demonstration of motor car reliability of which we know.

The run was from Los Angeles to Big Bear Valley and return—239 miles—of which 90 were on steep, rough mountain roads that necessitated stamina in every part. Yet the Big-Sixes reached every checking station on time.

One of these old veterans has piled up the amazing total of 351,000 miles of practically uninterrupted service of two trips daily between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara.

Another has 250,000 miles to its credit, and so on.

No such group of cars was ever before assembled for such a strenuous proof of endurance. Their entry in competition, over one of the most difficult of Southern California's mountain roads, was an expression of confidence of the owners in Studebaker everlasting goodness.

The dependability of the Big-Six Touring Car, its low cost of maintenance, its comfort, fine appearance and complete equipment make it the most desirable seven-passenger car on the market. Its price is way below cars that do not even approach it in value.

The name Studebaker is your assurance of value and satisfaction.

The WORLD OVER

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.

PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Two years ago the fate of boxing as a professional sport was trembling in the balance because of the actions of certain promoters, managers and boxers who had more regard to its commercial side than any ethics that might be involved in their actions.

Today the game is suffering from a torpid liver for two reasons. In the lightweight and heavyweight divisions, the titleholders are so much better than any of the challengers that there seems to be no prospect of getting up anything that savors of an even match. In the other divisions, there is a dearth of the first class championship material that existed a decade ago.

The salvation of the game will rest on the quick development of new boxers of merit and those promoters who are foresighted enough to put on bouts for the purpose of encouraging the newcomers into the ranks are the men who are most likely to pull the sport out of the torpid conditions into which it has fallen.

Nothing more tends to keep up the interest in a sport than the possibility or probability of a championship changing hands as the result of a battle. There is no one at the present time who can be sonsidered a menace to either Leonary or Dempsey. So acute is this in the case of Dempsey that they are talking of getting him into a ring in mixed match with a wrestler. Surely this is indicative of the depths to which the heavyweight division has fallen.

Such a match is mere buffoonery. Why not put Dempsey in the ring with a bear, or let him contest with Johnny Weismuller, the swimmer? It means nothing and only has a tendency to degrade the game into a slapstick act.

California and the Pacific coast, as a producer of first class boxing talent is no longer on the map for the reason that its bouts are restricted by law to only four rounds. This style of boxing is incapable of results, so that the days when a Corbett, a Choynski, a Jeffries, a Britt or a Ritchie could be produced no longer exist.

The eyes of the ring followers are fixed on New York as the most likely cradle for the nursing of new ring material, but up to the present time nothing has been evolved that gives any indication of putting the game on its feet. One man or two men cannot achieve the end. We have them now in such men as Dempsey and Leonard. It would be a mere repetition.

We must get them in greater numbers and the way to do it is to concentrate on new material and give it every possible chance to develop.

Giants and White Sox In Exhibition Games

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Nineteen exhibition games will be played by the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox in various southern cities this spring, according to the itinerary announced by Jim Tierney, secretary of the Giants. The series will open at San Antonio, Texas, on March 17 and close at the Polo grounds April 15.

Among the towns to be visited are Seguin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Shreveport, Vicksburg, Jackson, Memphis, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Johnson City, Tenn., and Portsmouth, Va.

Fight Results

At New York—Paul Boyle won the decision over Soldier Bartfield in ten rounds.

At Boston—Red Chapman defeated Charlie Beecher, New York, 10 rounds.

At Albany—Billy Shade, Australian light heavyweight champion, awarded decision over Fay Keiser of Cumberland, Md., 12 rounds.

At Marion, Ind. — Anthony Downey, Columbus, Ohio, knocked out Battling Lynn in first round.

"James? Oh, James is my man," replied the other.

Billy looked up at his companion quizzically, then he tasted the dark, thick concoction in the tin can.

"This is coffee," he announced. "I thought you said it was ambrose."

"I only wished to see if you would recognize it, my friend," replied the poetical one politely. "I am highly complimented that you can guess what it is from its taste."

For several minutes the two ate in silence, passing the tin can back and forth, and slicing—hacking would be more nearly correct—pieces of meat from the half-roasted fowl. It was Billy who broke the silence.

"I think," said he, "that you been stringin' me—'bout James and ambrose."

The other laughed good-naturedly.

"You are not offended, I hope," said he. "This is a sad old world, you know, and we're all looking for amusement. If a guy has no money to buy it with, he has to manufacture it."

"Sure, I ain't sore," Billy assured him. "Say, spiel that part again 'bout Penelope with the kisses on her mouth, an' you can kid me till the cows come home."

The camper by the creek did as Billy asked him, while the latter sat with his eyes upon the fire seeing in the spouting little flames the oval face of her who was Penelope to him.

When the verse was completed he reached forth his hand and took the tin can in his strong fingers, raising it before his face.

"Here's to—to his Knibbs!" he said, and drank, passing the battered thing over to his new friend.

"Yes," said the other; "here's to his Knibbs, and—Penelope!"

"Drink hearty," returned Billy Byrne.

The poetical one drew a sack of tobacco from his hip pocket and a rumpled package of papers from the pocket of his shirt, extending both toward Billy.

"Want the makings?" he asked.

"I ain't stuck on sponging," said Billy; "but maybe I can get even some day, and I sure do want a smoke. You see I was frisked. I ain't got nothin'—they didn't leave me a sou markee."

Billy reached across one end of the fire for the tobacco and cigarette papers. As he did so the movement bared his wrist, and as the firelight fell upon it the marks of the steel bracelet showed vividly. In the fall from the train the metal had bitten into the flesh.

His companion's eyes happened to fall upon the telltale mark. There was an almost imperceptible raising of the man's eyebrows; but he said nothing to indicate that he had noticed anything out of the ordinary.

The two smoked on for many minutes without indulging in conversation. The camper quoted snatches from Service and Kipling, then he came back to Knibbs, who was evidently his favorite. Billy listened and thought.

"Goin' anywheres in particular?" he asked during a momentary lull in the recitation.

"Oh, south or west," replied the other. "Nowhere in particular—any place suits me just so it isn't north or east."

"That's me," said Billy.

"Let's travel double, then," said the poetical one. "My name's Bridge."

"And mine's Billy. Here, shake," and Byrne extended his hand.

"Until one of us gets wearied of the other's company," said Bridge.

"You're on," replied Billy. "Let' turn in."

"Good," exclaimed Bridge. "I wonder what's keeping James. He should have been here long since to turn down my bed and fix my bath."

Billy grinned and rolled over on his side, his head uphill and his feet toward the fire. A couple of feet away Bridge paralleled him, and in five minutes both were breathing deeply in healthy slumber.

By DOUGLAS G. TINSLEY
For International News Service.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 20.—Banditry in Kansas City has become a fine art. Activities of hold-up gentry in the "Queen City of the Southwest" of late have been varied and unique.

The latest wrinkle originated by Kansas City criminals is not only to rob the victim of all valuables he may possess, but to cause him to disrobe with the exception of his underwear and go home in bitter weather in that condition—or in a barrel.

Since none of the bandits have been caught to date, the curiosity of police and victims as to why raiment is included in the bandits' "bill of sale" is unsatisfied.

It has become unsafe for a Kansas City citizen to venture forth at a late hour unless he is one of the reckless kind who cares nothing for what he has on his person and very little for his life. Police records show that unless the bandits are satisfied with the returns for their trouble they occasionally shoot the victim in a non-vulnerable spot or rap him on the head with a lead pipe or a blackjack, presumably as a warning to subsequent victims to come better heeled.

Police have become so confused by the activities of the hold-up men who roam at will over the wilds of the town as soon as darkness gathers and over their own inability to catch any of them that they frequently hold up the victim again and sometimes each other.

Recently a druggist, robbed of approximately $3000 in money, rings and other valuables and left with hands bound and a gag in his mouth, flagged a police automobile, only to have several pistol shots flashed in his face by nervous cops who mistook him for a bandit. While these police were getting straight on his identity another carload of sleuths rolled up and proceeded to "stick up" the victim and their fellow officers. The entire outfit then proceeded to where the druggist had been forced to abandon his car. Here the victim and the double-barreled aggregation of "law enforcers" saw a young man tinkering with the auto. The air literally bristled with pistols. The young man turned out to be a patrolman taking charge of the abandoned car until the owner returned.

While all this went on hold-up men "stuck up" a policeman and took the cartridges from his gun, after which they rapped him on the head and left him to his happy dreams.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY'S CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS

"Well, we are slowly getting ready for Christmas," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, to the bunny rabbit gentleman one morning, just about five days before the birthday of Santa Claus. "We have the tree."

"Yes, and I think the old Fuzzy Fox has a backache where the tree fell on him!" chuckled Uncle Wiggily. "Not that I wish him any bad luck," he went on, "but he shouldn't try to nibble my ears."

"No, he certainly should not," agreed Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "But, speaking of Christmas, Uncle Wiggily, did I hear you say something about hanging up stockings as well as having a tree?"

"You did, Janie," answered the bunny with a twinkle of his pink nose. "You and I will hang up our stockings."

"Well, here is a stocking that will do for me," went on the muskrat lady housekeeper, "and I have found a sock for you." She held them up for Uncle Wiggily to see.

"Bang!"

The bunny shook his head.

"They won't do at all," he said.

"Why not?" Nurse Jane wanted to know.

"Not half large enough," answered Uncle Wiggily. "This is going to be a good Christmas for us and I want plenty of room in your stocking. For that matter I want to have plenty of room in mine. Leave it to me, Janie, I'll get stockings that are large enough."

"Where?" asked Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"From Mr. Whitewash, the polar bear," answered Uncle Wiggily. "I met him in front of his ice cave yesterday, and we were talking about Christmas. He said he had some old, clean stockings he wasn't going to use, and he said I could take two to hang up for Christmas eve. So I'll go get the bear gentleman's stockings."

"Land sakes! I hope they'll be large enough," laughed Nurse Jane.

"I think they will be," chuckled the bunny.

So Uncle Wiggily hopped along through the woods and over the snowcovered fields until he reached the ice cave where the polar bear gentleman lived.

"Well, Uncle Wiggily, have you come for the Christmas stockings?" asked Mr. Whitewash.

"If you please," answered the bunny gentleman.

"Here you are then," went on the polar bear with a jolly laugh that shook down a dozen icicles fro mthe roof of his cave. But none of the icicles hit Uncle Wiggily, and those that hit the bear gentleman didn't hurt him at all, because he wore such a thick suit of white fur.

Mr. Whitewash handed the bunny gentleman two long, big-around red stockings. They were so large that Uncle Wiggily could have put all four of his paws and part of his twinkling nose inside one of the stockings.

"These will be just fine for Nurse Jane and me to hang up on Christmas Eve, near the tree," said Uncle Wiggily. He was about to hop out of the polar gentleman's cave when Mr. Whitewash said:

"Wait a minute, here's a little something else for you," and he handed Uncle Wiggily something round and hard and about half the size of a football.

"What is it?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"It's an apple dumpling that Aunt Lettie, the goat lady, sent me," answered Mr. Whitewash. "But I had a touch of toothache, so I didn't eat it. Now the dumpling is frozen as hard as an icicle from being kept in my ice cave. But if you take it home and warm it by the fire the dumpling will thaw out and you and Nurse Jane can eat it."

"Thank you, I'll do that," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'll just put the frozen dumpling in the toe of one of the stockings. I can easily carry it that way."

Uncle Wiggily slung the stocking, with the hard dumpling in, over his shoulder and started back toward his hollow stump bungalow. The bunny rabbit was thinking what a jolly time he and Nurse Jane would have at Christmas, with the stockings and the tree when, all of a sudden, out from behind a bush leaped the Woozie Wolf.

"Oh, ho!" howled the Wolf. "You are just in time to give a Christmas present, Uncle Wiggily. Give me some nibbles from your ears."

The Wolf leaned over to bite the bunny, but all at once, Mr. Longears cried:

"Have a Christmas stocking!" Then, with all his might, the bunny hit the Wolf on the nose with the hard, frozen apple dumpling that was in the toe of the stocking.

"Oh, weozie, woozie, wowzie!" howled the Wolf, and then he ran away as fast as he could go.

"Ha! My Christmas stocking brought me good luck already!" chuckled Mr. Longears. Then he hopped to his bungalow. Nurse Jane thawed the frozen apple dumpling and very good it was. And if the potato pancake doesn't roll around the pantry shelves like a hoop and make the raspberry jam laugh, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's Christmas candy.

APPARATUS AND DEVICES

By RALPH BROWN, RADIO ENGINEER

A HOME BATTERY CHARGER

It operates over a wide variation of frequency and line voltage, and is, therefore, unaffected by line surges, etc.

It is self-polarizing. Battery may be connected either way and will always charge.

Charging leads of any reasonable length and size may be used. It automatically gives a "tapering" charge and will fully charge any motor car battery over night.

It disconnects battery upon failure of line voltage and automatically restarts charging when power is restored.

It stops operating when battery is disconnected, thus rendering short circuiting and sticking of contact s impossible should charging leads be shorted.

Guaranteed not to injure battery, even though left connected indefinitely.

Vibrator may be perfectly synchronized and adjusted for the individual characteristics of charging circuit or battery by the turning of but one thumb screw.

It has but one moving and two wearing parts, which should last several years with ordinary use. These may be replaced for $1.

Requires no close or delicate adjustments.

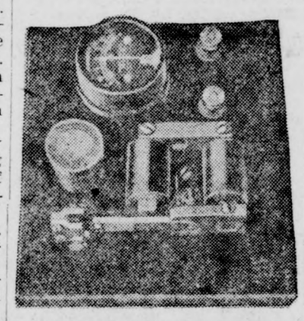
Highest efficiency of any rectifying device.

Vibrator assembly removable as a unit.

No sparking at contacts.

Automatic features obtained without the use of any relays or other complications.

Has no permanent magnet to lose its strength and necessitate constant adjustment.



Furnished for one-half or full wave operation.

Not affected by temperature changes—no danger from fire.

Two or more homechargers may be operated in series or parallel.

Charges radio "B" as well as "A" batteries.

RADIO EXPLAINED

By LIEUT. JOHN R. IRWIN
INSTRUCTOR U. S. AIR SERVICE

HISTORY OF RADIO

While the development of radio was progressing rapidly during the decade of 1900 to 1910, the "spark" was practically the only system used in commercial wireless telegraphy. Great progress, however, had been made in what today is known as the "continuous wave" or the "arc" systems. As the former term indicates, this system employed a continuous or "undamped" wave as its principle.

Poulsen was the originator of the "arc" method, while Alexandersen produced a high frequency alternator, which, while having a comparatively low rate of r. p. m., delivered an exceedingly high frequency. Both systems are used extensively today by operating companies.

An evolution of the vacuum tube, dealt with later, also produced another form of continuous radio transmission, which can be said to have put radio telephony where it is today.

Undoubtedly, owing to its greater efficiency continuous wave radiotelegraphy will eventually displace the spark systems, although, especially on shipboard, both systems are often used in one station. This, however, is merely as a convenience and a necessity under existing conditions, as a complete change from one system to the other would be too radical from a commercial or practical viewpoint. It is one that will come very gradually.

It will now be necessary to go back to the comparatively early days of radio to bring the reader to the development in the science, which, possibly, has resulted in the astonishing, and we might say, astonishing, and we might say, miraculous results that are obtained today.

Beauty Parlors to Fight Barber Rule

TOPEKA, Kan.—Beauty parlor operators throughout Kansas are rising up in arms to vigorously protest against the recent ruling of the State Barber Board, which requires that operators aiding in the beautification of milady and—yes, the male—must pass and take out state licenses, the same as barbers.

The fight may ultimately land in the State Supreme court.

Mary E. Keith, a Wichita beauty parlor attendant, appealed to the Sedgwick County District court recently to issue a restraining order compelling the Barber Board to keep its hands out of the affairs of the beautifiers.

The court, in its decision, disregarded Mrs. Keith's request and held that beauty parlors should come under barber shop regulations. She announced she would appeal to a higher court.

Side Talks by Ruth Cameron

TRY IT

"Do you know what we did this week end?" a friend of mine said to me yesterday.

"Well, when Philip came home Saturday at 5, I said, 'I do wish we had planned to go up to mother's over this week-end. It's going to be lovely weather and we haven't a thing to do. Why didn't we plan to go?'

"And what do you think he said, 'Well, let's go.' And, my dear, we went. It was 5 o'clock then and we got started at 7:30. We didn't get there until 11:30 but it was a lovely drive by moonlight and so little traffic that we made good time. The folks were so surprised and tickled to pieces. And it was such fun doing it that way without planning and fussing. I'm going to try and do things like that oftener, partly because they're such fun and partly because I like to prove to myself I'm not getting old and fuddy-duddyish."

Two Good Reasons

Two good reasons, I should say.

To be sure, the lady in question is only just barely on the shady side of 35. So some of my readers, will laugh at her for fear of getting old.

But isn't that just the danger period? That's the halfway mark of the four-score years and ten allotted us by the Bible and the law of average length. It's the time when if we are going to keep our muscles supple we have got to make sure that we are exercising enough. And it's also the time when if we are going to keep our mental muscles supple we have got to exercise and look after them.

Easy to Get Set

It is fatally easy to get set in one's ways as one grows older, with all the narrowing of outlook, and the unnecessary limiting of activities that that means.

When we begin to find that we must have things just so, that we have to plan things just so far ahead in order to get acustomed to them, that we dislike changes of all sorts and find ourselves referring to our young days as the days when things were done as they should be, we are getting into that state of mind that is going to narrow our activities and cut down our pleasures.

No Hurry

I think one can and should fight off such a lethargy just as determinedly as one fights bodily lethargy. Run off on some unplanned toot, as these people did. Try some new kind of food, or try out some new fangled household applience or some new recipe. Anything to prove to yourself that you are not getting to be an old fogy. You've got plenty of time to be old. Don't hurry matters up.

Tomorrow—Surprising or Surprised.

CHRISTMAS DINNER MENUS

In many sections of our country Turkey is served on Christmas day, in others, goose is considered the correct Christmas meat.

If our pocketbook suggests to us that we ought not to have turkey on our menus this year—or perhaps it is goose or duck we have been accustomed to—then we can fall back on chicken, rabbit, pork or oysters in some form and still have a fine dinner. Whichever meat is chosen select the remaining portion of the dinner to harmonize with it and the surroundings.

An oyster cocktail is appetizing and simple for the first course, but you may serve a half grape-fruit, or begin with a simple soup. Do not attempt an elaborate meal unless you can have it complete in every detail. If you have but one servant, or do your own work, select foods which may be easily prepared.

The three menus given here are not elaborate and may be prepared without the expenditure of a great amount of energy and time. Menus are but suggestions to give idea of correct routine and combinations. One starchy vegetable may be substituted for another, one succulent vegetable for another of the same chemical composition. For instance, rice may take the place of white or sweet potato, or macaroni, spaghetti, hominy or Hubbard Squash. Chicken may take the place of duck, turkey or goose, or one may serve a roast of pork, or beef or a saddle of mutton.

Preparations for Christmas dinner:

Do as much of the work as possible a day or two before Christmas. Bonbons may be made, celery and lettuce washed, put in cheese cloth bags and put on ice; the apple, cranberry or tomato jelly may be made and be the better for standing. Sweet potatoes may be cooked the day before and browned or candied at serving time. The plum pudding may be made several days in advance and simply reheated at serving-time. The chicken, goose, duck or turkey may be drawn two or three days before Christmas. If stuffing is to be used, make it and stuff the fowl the night before Christmas.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

"My dear Dr. Peters:—I've never had to put my shoes through the stretching process, but if people are one-half as uncomfortable stretching their shoes as I've been stretching my stomach, on me! I'm gaining, however, though slowly.....M. C."

The important part is that you are being rewarded for your discomfort, isn't it? Keep on, you will find that sooner or later you can accommodate more food without distress.

I am glad you love the Adorable Sockums and that you think he is a fine little professor. His responsibilities are great and he realizes it and he loves to be patted.

Write us again how you get along.

Mrs. F. B.—If, after going on a milk diet and balancing your diet afterwards and living hygienically in all ways, you still suffer from acid stomach and indigestion, I advise you to go to a stomach specialist and put yourself under his treatment. He will give you a complete examination, probably analyze the stomach contents and take an X-ray, etc., before treating you.

R. R.—You can understand that it would be impossible for me to make a diagnosis of the cause of your pains. Usually in chronic pains of such sort as you have, we find that there is some focus of infection in the body. Carious teeth, chronically inflamed tonsils or ears, etc. Have you had a thorough examination?

You say you have lost 30 pounds in three months and you feel splendid except for these chronic pains. Very often pains of many descriptions will disappear on reducing. Ahe you getting enough protein, vitamins and essential salts in your diet? Remember it is not sufficient to know about calories alone. You must know other important things relating to diet also. Have you our list of foods with their protein content? If you haven't you had better send for it. You should have from 250 to 350 C's a day

We have an article for your constipation also.

Mrs. T.—Take your child to a children's specialist if possible and have an examination to determine the cause of the inflammation. Watch her bowel movements and see if you can see any worms. Pin worms are tiny bits of thread-like worms about one-quarter of an inch long. I shall have a paper on worms shortly.

Children sometimes have habits that cause the condition you speak of. In fact it is not at all unusual. Patience, sympathy and kindness, and a realization that children must not be unduly frightened, should be used in correcting these habits.

Indican in the urine is normal in small amounts. I have examined thousands of urines when I was doing laboratory work and very seldom did I find one in which it was not present. It is only when it is present in large amounts that it is of significance. Then it means that there is intestinal putrefaction or absorption of pus from some locality.

Seeks to Abandon Entire Rail Line

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Application was made today to the interstate commerce commission by the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad asking for authority to abandon its entire line of railroad, comprising 237 miles.

The application stated that since the road's return from federal control, it has been operating at a heavy loss and now has assessed against it $120,000 in taxes by the state of Illinois, which it is unable to pay. The road is now in the hands of receivers.

BEAUTY CHATS

by EDNA KENT FORBES

DO YOU LOOK HEALTHY?

The thoroughly healthy woman may not always be beautiful, but she will always be most attractive. She might have the worst features in the world, but she couldn't possibly be homely, and she would always be well liked. That's because there is a physical vitality, a physical magnetism about health which attracts others equally healthy, as well as those who lack this divine gift.

It is a divine gift but it can be cultivated by even the poorest of mortals. Yet, for some season, few of us try to cultivate good health in any systematic way. We take it for granted until actual illness sends us to doctors and medicine bottles. It's so easy to get well by swallowing an unpleasant teaspoonful of something after each meal!

Have you the bright eyes and clear skin of good health? Are you cheerful, do you sleep well and do you wake refreshened? If you cannot say "yes" to all of these, you are not in normal health, and you are not as pretty and attractive as you ought to be, and can be.

Change your diet to simpler foods—often a gloomy view of life is only due to chocolate cake or roast pork! A bad complexion is surely due to something of the sort.

Go to bed an hour earlier than you generally do. Have all the windows wide open, and breathe deeply of the pure air before you even try to sleep. A hot drink and an amusing short story will help you drop off if you find sleeping hard. The chances are you'll have bright eyes in the morning, for that dull expression is often due to insomnia.

Kate L.—After you have had more practice in dancing you will lose this awkwardness of movement. As soon as you can forget that you have muscles, and get into the rhythm, the music will guide your motions and you will be relieved of your embarrassment.

'Transfer' Is Good For Ride Anytime

NEW YORK—A chubby-faced youngster presented himself at the kindergarten of the Elmont, L. I., school for initiation into the mysteries of higher education. Said the teacher to him:

"What's your name, sonny?"

"William Transfer Murphy," lisped the boy.

"William WHAT Murphy?" exclaimed the teacher.

"Please, ma'm, William Transfer Murphy," he replied again.

The teacher concluded that the youngster did not know his own name and decided to write to his mother. She received the following reply:

"His name is William Transfer Murphy. His father was a motorman on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit and I was a conductorette. When William was born we couldn't agree at first on his middle name, but finally we compromised on Transfer."

DISPLAYS PROVE OF BIG INTEREST

Shafe's Book Store, Stationery and Art Store Windows Attractive

Artistically arranged windows are the invitation of Christmas shoppers to visit Shafe's book, stationery and art store at 125-A South Brand boulevard.

The displays are the clever work of Frank Meyers and this will be of particular interest to Glendalians because Mr. Meyers has made Glendale his home for nineteen years. He has had experience in decorative work in the larger stores in Los Angeles and Sacramento.

Since the opening of the Shafe shop last week the window displays have been highly complimented for artistic arrangement of fine stock.

At present Mr. Meyers has one window filled with a medley of gifts. Two sets of candlesticks and bright colored candles occupy prominent places and showers of tinsel and Christmas paper are much in evidence.

In the other window are boxes of attractive stationery of the best lines. In both windows Mr. Meyers has unique holiday shades over the chandeliers. He has used holiday crepe paper with a Santa Claus figure, bells and holly with green and red tassels.

5 Bandit Suspects Taken Into Custody

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Declared by deputy sheriffs and agents of a private detective agency who made the arrests to be the best catch in years, five men, said to be daring bandits and responsible for at least 100 robberies and holdups near Los Angeles, were under arrest here today awaiting further investigation.

Henry Loggina, trolley car motorman.

G. H. Pruitt, gentleman of leisure.

F. H. Gillett, also in pictures as a police officer and chauffeur.

Virgil Moore, aviator, and said to be an accomplice.

A desperate search was also being made today for a woman who is thought to have played an important part in the gang's operations.

Approximately $4,900 of the $11,000 loot taken from the Fillmore bank at Piru on December 11, when C. E. Spencer, manager of the bank, and his five-year-old daughter, Mary Ellen, were robbed and then brought to Los Angeles, was found in a cabin used by the gang as a "hangout." Other paraphernalia, consisting of rugs, small, but valuable articles, watches, keys, firearms and street car conductors' money changers and other items, were found.

Harris, declared to be the ring leader, is said to have confessed to the Piru bank robbery, claiming he had been paying off the mortgage on his "old folks'" home in Oklahoma.

The arrests were made after days of shadowing of the men by the officers.

ORGANIZATIONS WORK TOGETHER

C. of C. Directors, Members Of City Council Meet to Program Harmony

Mayor Spencer Robinson, who responded for the councilmen present, rejoined by saying that he was in perfect harmony with everything that Mr. Smith had said.

"What we need," he told the assemblage, "is a larger spirit of understanding. And after we become better acquainted we will be enabled to work more in harmony."

Past To Be Forgotten

Mayor Robinson said that he hoped that the little misunderstandings which served to space a chasm between the two organizations in the past would be forgotten with the approach of the new year. With the Chamber of Commerce and City Council working together, he said that these differences in opinion would be eliminated.

Councilman Sam Davis, who took the floor after Mayor Robinson, good-naturedly took the directors of the Chamber of Commerce to task for giving all their time to directors' meetings. He intimated that they should pay more strict attention to the business of Glendale. Mr. Davis' talk was well accepted by the Chamber directorate.

Councilmen C. E. Kimlin and Dwight W. Stephenson also made brief speeches regarding the best methods to be employed by the organizations in working as a unit body.

"The best way to work for the interests of Glendale is for all organizations to forget that there is a north, south, east and west boundary to the city," Mr. Stephenson told the gathering. His remarks were soundly applauded.

W. E. Hewitt, first vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Roy L. Kent, a director of the organization, each in turn encouraged closer co-operation between the two civic units. It was the sense of each of the latter that much trouble could have been eliminated by both organizations if more deliberate consideration had been taken of seemingly inconsequential matters. The moral to each of their addresses was "let's discontinue taking snap judgment of people and things."

The meeting yesterday was one of the lengthiest held by the Chamber of Commerce in months. It was called to order at 12 o'clock, noon, and did not adjourn until 2 p. m.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

A Christmas dance has been announced by officers of the Order of De Molay, the junior Masonic organization, for Thursday night in the Masonic Temple. The entertainment committee headed by Stillman Chase is in charge of decorating the hall. He will be assisted by Allan K. Pollock, W. J. Goodfellow, Wilford M. Cline, Samuel Thompson, Valentine Hollingsworth.

TRIP TO MOUNTAINS

WORKMAN IS INJURED

G. E. Cunningham was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital about 11 o'clock this morning following a fall while working on the new building of the Robinson Storage Company at 401 South Central avenue. A scalp wound was dressed and X-rays were taken.

MINOR OPERATION

A minor operation was performed this morning at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital upon Mervin Critchlow, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Critchlow of 1004 Wellington avenue.

S. OF V. WOMEN HOLD BIG MEET

Mrs. Lulu F. Paugh Elected Head of Local Post for Ensuing Year

Last night was the occasion of an important meeting of the N. P. Banks auxiliary, No. 7, to the Sons of Veterans. The meeting convened at 7:30 o'clock in the American legion hall. It concluded at midnight with the inspection, initiation and installation of new officers.

Inspection was in charge of Sister Amanda Bickels, past division president and member of the Phil Carney auxiliary of Pasadena. Other visitors from the Carney auxiliary were Sister Matthews, division council No. 2; Mrs. Connor, division vice-president; Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Gardner. These women presented the N. P. Banks auxiliary with a fern to be auctioned off at the next meeting, which will be the Tuesday night after New Year's.

Two new members were initiated into the organization: Miss Mary Elizabeth Fell and Mrs. Carrie Grace Baird. Mary Fell's mother, Mrs. Daisy Radford Fell, was transferred from Rosecrans auxiliary No. 2 of Los Angeles. Mrs. Garnet Young, a charter member who had long ago been obligated but never given a complete initiation, was taken through officially last night.

New Officers Elected

Election of officers for the coming term resulted as follows: Mrs. Lula F. Paugh, president; Mrs. Dora Hall, vice-president; Mrs. Carrie Grace Baird, Mrs. Alice McGee and Mrs. Pearl Gillette, trustees; Mrs. Melissa Warfield, treasurer; Mrs. Martha Galer, chaplain; Mrs. Cora Stuart, patriotic instructor; Miss Audrey Hall, guide; Miss Ida Galer, assistant guide; Miss Lorna Galer and Miss Mary Elizabeth Fell, color guards; Mrs. Garnet Young, outside guard; Mrs. Alice McGee, inside guard; Mrs. Mabel Galer, press correspondent; Mrs. Gertrude Griffin, secretary; Mrs. Mabel Galer, musician; Charles Stuart, councelor.

Mrs. Amanda Parker was appointed delegate to the national convention in Milwaukee next September, with Mrs. Garnet Young as alternate. Mrs. Dora Hall, Mrs. Harold Gillett and Miss Audrey Hall were appointed delegates to the division encampment at Modesto next May, with Mrs. Cora Stuart, Mrs. Melissa Warfield and Mrs. Carrie Baird as alternates.

Manila to Guard Against Epidemics

MANILA—The health authorities of Manila, in their campaign to prevent contagious diseases and avoid the spread of epidemics, are proposing a plan whereby all cooks and house servants in Manila must report to the health authorities of the city for regular inspection and certification that they are free from disease. It is believed that many epidemics and much of the communicable diseases are aided in their spread by cooks handling food. This is especially important in the case of cooks and servants in the restaurants.

Recently a municipal ordinance was enacted in Manila to prevent small stores and shops from giving drinking water to their patrons, since such water, usually taken from infected wells, was a constant source of infection in the spread of typhoid fever. Manila in the past has suffered from serious cholera epidemics, but the city has been free from cases for some time.

ASKS RESIGNATIONS

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 20.—Resignations of four instructors at North Carolina state college were requested today by President W. C. Riddick, who charges the men with having manufactured home brew in their rooms at the college.

White ants are destroying the beautiful old temples of Nikko, Japan. The temples, built of wood and lacquered, are going fast under the attacks of the insects.
